(d) The Nuclear Power Corporation of India Limited (NPCIL) and Bharatiya Nabhikiya Vidyut Nigam Ltd. (BHAVINI) are the two public sector companies under the administrative control of the Department of Atomic Energy which are engaged in the setting up, operation and maintenance of Nuclear Power Plants in the country.

The domestic private sector is already contributing in the nuclear power programme as suppliers of major equipment and in execution of large supply-cum-erection packages.

As regards participation in the new projects, the same is presently possible only through the Government Companies.

. (e) Larsen & Toubro (L&T), National Thermal Power Corporation Limited (NTPC), Bharat Heavy Electrical Limited (BHEL) and Reliance Energy Limited (REL) have, in the past, expressed interest in participation in the nuclear power. However the Department has not received any proposal in this regard.
